

My journey with Toastmasters & Great speeches

Christian Hald Mortensen

Guest speaker at Malmö Toastmasters on November 4.

Christian Hald Mortensen works as the advisor to the Minister of Climate and Energy in Denmark and has prepared many speeches in the run-up to the UN Climate Change Conference in Copenhagen in 2009. He enjoys public speaking and has won four speech contests.

Christian joined Toastmasters in the United States back in 2005, continued as a TM member in Denmark and was appointed President of the Copenhagen Toastmasters Club this year. On November 4, Christian Hald Mortensen will visit Malmö Toastmasters as a guest speaker, and will give a presentation entitled "My journey with Toastmasters & Great speeches". Afterwards Christian looks forward to a stimulating discussion with the newly established club in Malmö.

Time: Thursday 4th November 2010, 18.30 – 20.00

Where: Studentcentrum, Nordenskiöldsgatan 3, Malmö

Cost: Free

Learn how Toastmasters can help you, not only to overcome your fear of speaking in public but also manage meetings at work, help you with job interviews, boost your self confidence, become an inspiring and effective leader and more.

Come and learn how to get started! No obligation!

Register today at: malmo@toastmasters.se

More information at www.toastmasters.se or telephone 070-660 3965

